Refund Policy

STUDENT RIGHT TO CANCEL

The student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first-class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

A notice of cancellation shall be in writing and can be sent by mail or email. A withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance or violation of federal or state law.

California Culinary Arts Institute shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first-class session, or the seventh-class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Date by which the student must cancel or withdraw: _____

The refund policy for California Culinary Arts Institute students who have completed 60 percent or less of the periods of attendance shall be a pro rata refund. Students who have completed 60 percent or greater of the contracted period of enrollment as indicated on the student application, shall receive no refund of tuition or of institutional charges incurred.

If a student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund, and that, if the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of the moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

If the student defaults on a federal or state loan, both the following may occur:

- (1) The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
- (2) The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government financial assistance until the loan is repaid.

Housing

California Culinary Arts Institute has no responsibility to find or assist a student in finding housing.

The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by a student in an educational program at a qualifying institution, who is or was a California resident while enrolled, or was enrolled in a residency program, if the student enrolled in the institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered an economic loss. Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, you must pay the state-imposed assessment for the STRF, or it must be paid on your behalf, if you are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if you are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program.

NOTICE CONCERNING TRANSFERABILITY OF CREDITS AND CREDENTIALS EARNED AT OUR INSTITUTION

The transferability of credits you earn at California Culinary Arts Institute is at the complete discretion of an institution to which you may seek to transfer. Acceptance of the certificate you earn in the Baking and Pastry Arts program is also at the complete discretion of the institution to which you may seek to transfer. If the certificates that you earn at this institution are not accepted at the institution to which you seek to transfer, you may be required to repeat some or all of your coursework at that institution. For this reason you should make certain that your attendance at this institution will meet your educational goals. This may include contacting an institution to which you may seek to transfer after attending California Culinary Arts Institute to determine if your certificate will transfer.
